F. PRESENTATION OF PROCLAMATION RECOGNIZING STAUFFER TOWING FOR VOLUNTEER SERVICE

Commissioner Harvey read the proclamation recognizing Stauffer as a champion to Weber County citizens, noting that Stauffer had not wished to be recognized. On September 8th a historic windstorm (from Salt Lake to Logan) knocked down thousands of trees. He saw some in Weber County that had more than 200 rings and massive root balls. There was huge devastation and temporary dump stations became overwhelmed with green waste. Stauffer Towing reached out to mayors, volunteering their services, manpower, employees going door to door, and equipment to help out. They provided a 50-ton lift truck and others to remove tree stumps and the trailers to transport them to the landfill.
