

Territory of Utah } ss.
County of Morgan }

Wilson Concliv. ^{born} of Croyden, in Quail Co. Tex. duly sworn ^{to} on his oath, says that during the year 1874 he was a resident of the said town of Croyden and in occupation and possessed a certain tract of ^{unimproved} land of about 160 acres, in area, in the mouth of Cedar Canyon, where the same joins Lost Creek Canyon, in the aforesaid County and Territory, and that he had valuable improvements thereon consisting of a log house and fences, and cultivated lands and that he continued to peaceably possess, and culture the said ^{land} up to the year and including the year 18— when the then find, there, for a natural born ^{citizen} ^{of} ^{the} ^{United} ^{States}, conveyed to John Hapburn, all his claim and interest and possession in and unto said land, and furthermore that at no time between the year 1874 and the year 18— did he abandon or cease to possess the said tract of land

X

Subscribed & sworn to before me this — day of October A.D. 1895.

X