C. C. Richards,
County Clerk

March 16.

Ten A. M. Court met pursuant to adjournment.

Present: A Full Board.

Prayer by Mr. Montgomery.

Minutes of the 3rd inst. were read and approved.

Order City's bill of $280.05, being one half the amount of assistance furnished paupers since the rendition of the last bill, was read and referred to Mr. McQuarrie for investigation.

The Molecular Telephone Company's bill of $3.00 for use of telephone in the Recorder's office during the month of March, was read and allowed.

John C. Child's bill of $10.05 for repairs at the Riverdale Bridge by order of Judge Shurtliff and Mr. McQuarrie, was read and allowed.

Judge Shurtliff and Mr. McQuarrie, the Committee appointed to receive and open the bids which might be made for rock for use at the Riverdale Bridge (for which the Clerk was directed at a previous session of the Court to advertise) reported that proper notice was given by the Clerk, and in response thereto the following bids were received:

Samuel Harrop, Edward Harrop and C. E. Rostam made a joint bid to furnish the rock necessary at $1.25 per perch.

Adam Russell offered to furnish the desired quantity at 90¢ per perch.

Weber County, Utah.
