Dear Mr. Deaton:

With reference to your letter of August 14, 1972 concerning the disposition of the old U-95 highway alignment in which you asked for the recommendations of the San Juan County Commission, please be advised as follows:

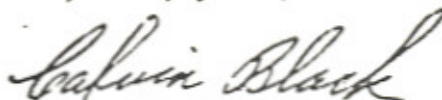

1. We propose that the local service road through Cyclone Flats be connected directly to the future alignment of U-95 and that the road from there, approximately 2 miles, to the junction of U-261 be abandoned.

2. It is our recommendation that the section of the old alignment just west of Mule Canyon, past Pine Spring, and on to the new road near Salvation Knoll be continued as a County road to provide access to this area for a rest and camping stop and to provide continuity of traffic in direction. We further recommend that cattle guards be placed at both points of access to the new highway.

These matters have been discussed with the Bureau of Land Management and they have indicated their concurrence.

Your recommendations on the balance of the sections are satisfactory.

Very truly yours,

Calvin Black
County Commissioner

FLH-42 (9) 1st Contract
FLH-42 (10)
FLH-42 (9) 2nd Contract

In accordance with Policy 07-4 pertinent to redesignation, transfer, and abandonment of highways, I transmit herewith a plan sheet showing the new highway alignment on U-95 between Cottonwood Creek and U-261. Also the old U-95 alignment between the same two points.

It is the District Engineer's recommendation that the sections of old U-95 alignment shown in red be retained and placed under San Juan County jurisdiction, and the sections of the old U-95 alignment shown in yellow be obliterated and abandoned to adjacent property owners. The new U-95 alignment and the sections of old U-95 shown in red restore the continuity of service that was provided by the old alignment.

Also attached is a letter dated September 18, 1972 from San Juan County signed by Commissioner Calvin Black in which they concur in this recommendation with the exception of two recommendations which are noted on the attached plan sheet. The recommendations made by San Juan County in their September 18 letter are included in the recommendations made by the District.

SUBJECT: Disposition of old Right-of-Way SR-95 in San Juan County

In response to your letter of September 28, 1972, an investigation of the right-of-way files and records has failed to reveal any formal taking of land for the old highway. It must therefore be concluded that this road was established by use or prescriptive right and unless transferred to the county for a county road, it can be abandoned. Either of these actions should be in accordance with the State Code.
